Miller & Rhoads

This Morning

In Our Wash Goods Section We Will Place on Sale Promptly at 9 o'Clock

75,000 Yards of Genuine Seco Silk at 19c a yd.

The same exquisite quality Seco Silks, of soft shim-mering sheen and loveliness of tone and shade, that has made them sought by ladies of taste and fashion for smart house dresses, as well as for party and evening

In this immense lot will be found plain colors marked "Argentine Seco," and self-colored round dots called "Brazil Seco," also the self-colored diamond dots, called "Diamond Dot Seco."

These are the GENUINE Seco Silks, made for Samuel Eiseman Co., from whose initials the fabrics-S-E-C-O-take their name, and they sell regularly for

They come in both street and evening shades, as well as white and black—the color range embracing about 35 different shades, being exceptionally wide and complete

See the Broad Street window display. On sale this (Wednesday) morning in the Wash Goods Section, only 19c a yard.

WILL REAPPOINT TRAVELING STATE OFFICIALS

Governor Says He Will Make No Changes in Positions Within His Gift.

No suggestion of opposition has appeared to any one of the incumbents of the offices soon to be filled by the Son in Richmond on Friday, December of the offices soon to be filled by the Sovernor by appoint cnt. That official ber 1, for the election of officers and yesterday indicated his intention of reappointing them all, saying there iness. The traveling men of the State was no reason why he should not do are expected to attend en masse, and,

MEETING OF OPTOMETRISTS

Dealers in Spectacles May Again Seck State Licenses.

Optometrists from all over the State Company, hefore the State Company, hefore the State Company, hefore the State Company in this city on Friday. The assistance is speciation of Opticians.

sociation of Opticians.

In the last Legislajure a bill was introduced to establish a board for the examination of candidates to practice optometry and providing for the licensing of those successful in the examination. It was and is claim that the purpose of such legislation is to protect the public from bella victimized by unscrupulous venders of spectacles, who are unskilled in correcting vision. On the other hand, there was violent opposition to the bill, based on the assertion that there is nothing to the proposition is a ladaurary. The term has been a busy one censes would put the State's braid of regularity on the practice. The measure was defeated, but it is pra-sumed that it will be proposed sain

OPEN WHARF BIDS

November Term of Supreme Tribunal Will End To-Day.

At the conclusion of to-day's session the Supreme Court of Appeals will adjourn for the term to meet again during the first week in January. The term has been a busy one although perhaps not quite the usual number of caree have been heard.

It seems uncertain as to whether or not there will be decisions to-day. They will probably be few, if any, so far only one use argued since court convened has been decided—that of Charlest Hall Dawis in the habous corpus proceedings.

The case of Meredith et als vs. Triple felland Gunning Club (Inc.) was argued yearlend by D. H. Lesike and W. D. Cardwell for the appellants, and by A. Johnston Acktes and W. H. White, Jr., for the appellants, and by T. Cardwell for the appellants, and by C. Washington Acktes and W. H. White, Jr., for the appellant and by Creed M. Fullon for the appellant and by Creed

CHARTERS ISSUED

Haskerville Hardware and Supply Company (Inc.). Haskerville, Va. C. S. Gordan, president; W. J. Mason, vice-president; John T. Gordan, kerritary and freasurer-all of Buskerville, Va. Cepital: Maximum, 125,090; anishmum, 5,500. Object: To do a hardware and general merchandise business.

George M. Ball Company (Inc.). Portsmouth, Va. George M. Ball, president; J. H. Fleming, Jr., eccretary-all of Portsmouth, Va. Capital: Maximum, 125,000; object: Electrical construction business.

Taxicab Suit Settled.

The suit of Mabel C. Meyers against the Richmond Transfer Company was ordered dismissed from the docket of the City Circuit Court yesterday at the cost of the defendant, having been settled out of court. It was claimed that some months ago Miss Meyers engaged a taxicab to go to Petersburg, that the car was recklessly operated, resulting in her being thrown out and suffering gevere injuries. She sued for $2,000.

James River and Dive Other Council Com-udities Meet To-Night.

No matter whether the account is

UNITED STATES DEPOSITORY FOR POSTAL SAVING FUNDS

Case Involving Question of Ripa- Trade Notified That It Must Orrian Rights Comes Up in Court To-Day.

Intricate Legal Points to Be Decided-First Owner Drowned Near Property.

Another move in the long-drawn-out litigation over the ownership of Barnes Island in James River will be nade this morning when the case is was no reason why he should not do so.

One of these is J. Richard Wingfield, a member of the State Corporation Commission, who will receive a consission which will be good for the next six years, from February 1912. Judge Wingfield is now filling the unpired term of Colonel Joseph E. Williams who resigned not quite two years as to expire until July 1 next, but he feeting legislation contributing to the comport and safety of the traveling public, and has done conspicuous to expire until July 1 next, but he feeting legislation contributing to the comfort and safety of the traveling public, and has done conspicuous service in removing a number of abundance of the State, and succeeded in effecting legislation the same to the Supreme Court, and a writ of error and supersedess time. Governor Mann has frequently spoken with enthusiasm of Dr. Williams's work.

Labor Commissioner James B. Doberty is another official who will have an unopposed passport to his office for two more years at the fall of 1999 a bill regulating the sami office for two more years at the fall of 1990 a bill regulating the sami office for two more years at the fall of 1990 a bill regulating the sami office for two more years at the fall of 1990 a bill regulating the sami office for two more years at the fall of 1990 a bill regulating the sami office for two more years at the fall of 1990 a bill regulating the sami office for two more years at the fall of 1990 a bill regulating the sami of the trial court was revers 30 and a writ of error and supersedess that the reparted and published in the fall of 1990 a bill regulating the sami of the trial court was revers 30 and 1990 an der Thereaster From Three Concerns.

BARNES ISLAND TOBACCO CHANGE OWNERS OF ROAD AGAIN TO FRONT EFFECTIVE DEC. 1 OPPOSE LESSEES

Duke, Dula and Maloney Mentioned as Presidents of New Companies.

Jobbers and local dealers generally were notified yesterday that the re-organization plan of the American mission was marked by the attempts and Equity Court, the verdict in the plies must be ordered from the three and by the efforts of the Southern and Equity Court, the verdict in the British and Equity Court, and Equity Court, and Equity Court, and Equity Court, the verdict in the British and Equity Court, and Bijou Engaged by University Alumni for Thanksgiving Night.

Robert M. Jeffress, chairman of the Robert M. Jeffress, chairman of the committee in charge, said yesterday that arrangements for the theatre party at the Bijou to be riven by the university alumni to the teams and students from Carolina and Virginia have been perfected.

There will be several hundred students present, and they have been given large blocks of seats, both on the first floor and in the balcour, so niversity

nuclents from Ca.

have been perfected.

There will be several hundred dents present, and they have been given large blocks of seats, both on the first floor and in the balcony, so that the cheer leaders will have a full chorus of vo'ces ready for any occasion. Pictures of the teams and of individual players and favorite college songs during the intermissions, college songs and will be sung, college tunes played by the orchestra and the occasion will afford an opportunity for a grand resion of the friends and followers of universities. Many of the present with a present with society

Leaves State Job. The order rump was spread on he court.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

To-night at $15 at Monumental Church the Rev. W. Russell Bowle, rector of St. Paul's Church, will address the members of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, of this city and vicinity, at their annual corporate communion service, which is being held this year on the are of St. Andrew's Day.

The pews in the middle aliale will be rectored for the members of the brotherhood, who will assemble in the Sunday-school room and march into the church in a body. The served for the members of the two universities. Many of the young women as well as men, who may come to service.

Liernses.

The performance at the Bijou is a musical comedy of the kind which musical comedy of the kind which and the church which and the community of the two universities. Many of the two universities.

The performance at the Bijou is a musical comedy of the kind which and the particular this particular this particular this particular this particular this particular this particular the court of the church will be scattered all through the adapted to a college re-

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses were lesued yesterday in the Hustings Court to William T. King and Martha J. Thomas: Thomas J. Hargadon and Walburg E. Ezcherick; George J. Drake and Sue Gregory Eggleston; Edward W. Long, of Washington, D. C., and Linnett H. Godsey, and to John W. O'Connor and L. Irene Byrne.

Atlantic and Danville Objects to Southern's Position on Train

CITY SECURED NEW TRIAL TALK AS TO HEAD OFFICERS HEARING IS CONTINUED

Clean Up Capitol for Legislature, Telephone Company Pays

For hours yesterday a public hear-Tobacco Company would be effective of the owners of the Atlantic and on December 1, after which date sup- Danville Railroad to get into the case

Seco Silks, of soft shimitons and shade, that has of taste and fashing for party and evening is for party and evening is for party and evening shades and season of the standard and points, betting the states of taste and standard sports, betting the state of the standard and points of the standard and points of the standard and points as for party and evening shades, as the color range embracing being exceptionally wide with the standard in varying amounts at fragrentiate the standard and populate the standard in varying amounts at fragrentiate the standard and populate the standard in varying amounts at fragrentiate the standard and populate the standard in varying amounts at fragrentiate the standard and populate the standard in varying amounts at fragrentiate the standard and populate the standard and populate the standard and populate the standard and populate the standard and Painters have possession of the Capitol basement, finishing the walls and ceiling of the corridors in preparation for the coming of the Legislature. The building will be touched up wherever there is a sign of soiling.

The dust of two years is upon those parts of the House and Senate chambers, which have not been easily reached by the janitors. They will be given a thorough overhauling.

Bell Company Pays Big Tax. Most of the public service corpora-tions have settled their annual taxes A check received yesterday by the Auditor from the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company of Virginia was for $29,191.68. This is based upon a property valuation of $1,273,-981.67, which yields $4,458.93, 1 per cent on an income of $50,000 and 2 per cent on an income of $50,000 and 2 per cent on an income of $1,651.78.68.

First Regiment Mon First Regiment, recently tried by court-martial for failure to attend the camp at Culpoper in July, have been notified of the judgment of the court. Private Charles P. Reekes, of Company F, was fined $15, while Private Hugh T. Steinrock was fined $25.

The men have the right of appeal to the Governor, which it is presumed they will exercise. The fines of members of the Blues who were tried for the same offense were rduced on appeal.

BARTON HEIGHTS VOTES BONDS FOR IMPROVEMENTS

The $20,000 band issue for general improvements was arispited and approved yesterday by the citizens of Barton Relghts, the vote being 12 to 2. Considering the fact that the total vating strength is burrely 30, the record is marifularly gratifying to those who have advocated the issue. The money will be used for new improvements and for those now under way.

For School Superintendent.

Coroner J. G. Loving, of Chesterfield county, will be a candidate before the State Board of Education for the office of division school superintendent for his county to succeed Dr. Charles M. Hazen, of Bon Air, who has resigned. The place has been filled temporarily by the aspointment of a trustee at Chester, and the board will probably take the matter up at its next meeting. Dr. Loving is quite well known throughout the county.

Exclusive Overcoats

Of the choiest materials in light and heavy weights for walking and automobile use. Cold-proof and

Gans-Rady Company

PAGE CANDIDATE LODGEOF SORROW

Hanover Attorney Announces He H. M. Smith, Jr., Will Deliver Will Seek Office Before Legislature.

Further life was given yesterday to the fight for the office of Auditor of Public Accounts, which is to be filled by the Legislature, by the announcement that Rosewell Page, now a memment that Rosewell Page, now a member of the House of Delegates from Hanover county, will be a candidate lie was not re-elected, and will be eligible.

Mr. Page took a leading part in legislative affairs. He was chairman of the Committee for Courts of Justice in the last Legislature, thus filling a position second only to the chair. lie was not re-elected, and will be eligible.

Mr. Page took a leading part in legislative affairs. He was chairman of the Committee for Courts of Justice in the last Legislature, thus filling a position second only to the chairmanship of the Committee on Privileges and Elections. In addition, he was on the Committees on Schools and Colleges and on Rulés. He has a wide acquaintance throughout the State, especially among lawmakers. He will make an active fight for the nomination by the joint Democratic caucus.

The other candidates are C. Lee Moore, E. C. Massie, H. M. Darnall and Charles A. Johnston.

POLICE COURT CASES

Carrie Hunt, Charged With the Murder of Her Hushand, Is Dismissed.

Carrie Hunt, colored, charged with the murder of her husband, Louis Hunt, on the night of October 29, was dismissed in Police Court, yesterday morning. The woman was arrested on the night of the murder. She declared that a negro man had stabbed Hunt to death, and no direct evidence gainst her was ever obtained.

James Turner, colored, charged with assaulting Edward Poliard, was fined 130 and placed under 130 security for six months.

The case against James Stewart, colored, charged with operating a policy game, was balled in the sum of 4395.

The case against James Stewart, colored, charged with operating a policy game, was continued to to-morrow morning. He was balled in the sum of $190.

ROBBED THE SMOKEHOUSE
AND TOOK HEAL FINE MEAT

R. E. Garnett, a storekeeper, of Varina Grove, Henrico county, reported to the authorities at the courthouse yearerday morning that an unknown thief entered his smokehouse Monday night and helped himself to everything in eight. The smokehouse was well fulled with a valuable callection of meats, and the theft represents a serious loss.

Allis Approved by Committee, The Committee on Printing and Claims tield a session jast night, at which routine business was transacted, including approval of a number of bills.

Acca Temple Meeting.

Acca Temple will hold its regular seasion to-night, at which a large class will be received.

Rev. J. W. Gee Leaves Carteraville.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Carteraville, Va., November 2.—Rev. J. W. Gee left to-day for his new field of work at Prospect. For four years he has been paster of the Carteraville Methodist Church, and his removal causes genuine regret throughout the community. He was president of the Hamilton High School Improvement League, and by his work it was made one of the two models leagues in the State. He was also secretary of the Alfalfa Clubhere and secretary of the Masonic Lodge. Mr. Gee, with his wife and her mother,

U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals,
The United States Circuit Court of Appeals reconvened yestorday with Circuit Judges 60ff and Pritchard and District Judges McDowell, Connor and Smith in at

This paper is a necessity before commissions can be sent out.

Leaves State Job.

C. Lee Moore. Jr., messenger for the State Corporation Commission, has resigned his position.

Otis Caught Again.

Otis Wren, colored, was roleased from the road gang on Saturday. He had been "sent up" for twelve months from Newport News. Early last night he was arrested on a charge of helng disorderly and striking Lizzie Johnson. Lizzie made the complaint, and it was Lizzie who had him arrested. She was not hurt.

STREET COMMITTEE FAILS

TO HOLD REGULAR SESSION

The Committee on Streets, which was scheduled to hold its monthly meeting last night, failed of a quorum and was adjourned after the roll call. Shortly after adjournment enough belated members put in an appearance to form a quorum, but Chairman Lynch ruled that he had no right to all the meeting to order, and so the many important matters ponding before the committee will be deferred until a subsequent session is ordered by the chalir.

First Regiment Men Fined.

Some of the men of the First Regiment session is ordered by the chalir.

First Regiment Men Fined.

Some of the men of the First Regiment session is ordered by the chalir.

Pirat Regiment Men Fined.

Some of the men of the First Regiment session is ordered by the chalir.

First Regiment Men Fined.

Some of the men of the First Regiment session is ordered by the chalir.

Pirat Regiment Men Fined.

Some of the men of the First Regiment session is ordered by the chalir.

Pirat Regiment Men Fined.

Some of the men of the First Regiment session is ordered by the chalir.

Pirat Regiment Men Fined.

Some of the men of the First Regiment session is ordered by the chalir.

Pirat Regiment Men Fined.

Some of the men of the First Regiment free men baye the hall provided the same of the bank partial for failure to entitled of the subsequent session is ordered by the chalir.

Pirat Regiment Men Fined.

Some of the men of the Men of the court private Charles P. Reekes, of Company for the court private Charles P. Reekes, of Com

Principal Address at the Academy. Annual memorial services in honor of their dead will be held in the Academy of Music next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock by the local Elks, under the auspices of Richmond Lodge, No. 45. An impressive program of music and addresses has been arranged for the memorial occasion, which always attracts an audience as large as the Academy can hold.

Calisch will offer the prayer and ben-ediction.

The members of the order who died since the last memorial meeting, and in honor of whose memory the meeting next Sunday will be held, are Thomas B. Hicks, Sr., G. Watt Taylor, John E. Epps, F. W. Cunningham, Robert L. Snead, D. J. Anthony, P. M. Fry, F. W. Senff, H. St. John Coalter, G. S. Ross, Charles E. Elliott and Judge J. II. In-gram.

The following compose the reception The following compose the reception committee: George W. Rady, Edward A. Stumpf, W. D. Butler, Joseph M. Kain, G. Jeter Jones, A. A. Morrisey, John J. Lynch, Sigmund Hutzler, Frank T. Anthony, William Grimmell, Joseph Kuss, Edgar Allan, Jr., Aaron Jacobs, E. C. Kohler, T. J. Leahey and Louis B. Hatke.

BRING SUSPECTS BACK

Sult Over Commissions.

In the case of Richeson & Crutchfield against T. N. Edwards, on trial in the City Circuit Court, the jury heard the evidence yesterday and was adjourned to this morning at 10 o'clock, when the case will be argued. The suit is over commissions on the saie of certain real estate.

GORDON METAL CO. Richmond, Va.

A Tour of the

Mediterranean Upwards of three months' travel in classic and sacred lands. $695.00 up. Leave New York March 2, 1912. RICHMOND TRANSFER COMPANY, 809 East Main Street.

"Richmond's gas works daily capacity increased 1,800,000 cubic feet in ten years."

Richmond Advertisers' Club.

Pay Your Poll Tax To-Day

And avoid the five per cent. penalty on this tax if delinquent-that is, if not paid before December the first.

WE CAN'T MAKE MEN VOTE, but we can urge every citizen of Richmond to take these preliminary steps so that he may be prepared to express by the ballot what, after careful consideration, he believes to be best for the community.

The American National Bank of Richmond, Virginia,

appeals to every qualified voter to thus become a REAL CITIZEN just as we appeal to every individual every day to become a REAL FINANCIER.